

Asaël Rouby,

Research Integrity Officer, FNR, Luxembourg

After having worked for well-known and international law firms in Luxembourg for a few years, Asael ROUBY joined the National Research Fund (FNR) in 2009, where he currently holds the position of Legal Advisor and Research Integrity Officer. He is member of the working group on research integrity at Science Europe and he was involved in the work of the European Science Foundation (ESF) Member Organisation Forum on Research Integrity that produced the consensus document “The European Code of Conduct for Research Integrity”, launched at the Second World Conference on Research Integrity held in July 2010. Since December 2015 he is co-chair of European Network of Research Integrity Offices (ENRIO). In May 2016 in the H2020 call on European Ethics and Research Integrity Network- GARRI-10-2015, ENRIO is now partner of the selected proposal ENERI (The European Network of Research Ethics and Research Integrity). At the national level, on April 22nd, 2015, the Secretary of State for Higher Education and Research Marc Hansen announced the creation of a national agency for research integrity in Luxembourg. The FNR was given the mission to set up an inter-institutional working group to draft a proposal for the organizational structure and the regulatory framework of this national agency.